LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT CANDLES

(Maren Tirabassi and Howard Thurman)

One: We have gathered at this wreath all this Advent season to light candles.

*We claim that Emmanuel, God with us is Light and Darkness in a world that must work and rest,
be generous and self-careful,
experience tears and laughter,
in order to share
both the hurt and humor of others from the deep place of knowing it.*

Let us light these candles on this holy night.

Two: I light the candle of hope,
and hopelessness cannot hide.

I light the candle of peace,
and expose hatred as fear turned inside out.

I light the candle of joy,
and everyone is welcome with a smile,
a moment of beauty or wonder.

I light the candle of love,
and hands are clasped around the world.

All: THIS IS CHRISTMAS

The evergreen singing aloud its poem of constant renewal,
The festive mood spreading liting magic everywhere,
The gifts of recollection calling to heart the graces of life,
The star in the sky calling to mind the wisdom of hope,
The warmth of candlelight glowing against the darkness,
The birth of a child linking past to future,
The symbol of love absorbing all violence,
THIS IS CHRISTMAS.

*One: O Holy God, we light the Christ candle.
It shines on smiles and tears.
It shines into the lives of everyone.
It shines and we remember the story.
It shines around angels
who sing for the most vulnerable, and guides the long traveling of those from far away.*

Two: It shines on a manger,
a child and parents,
with animals gathered all around.
It shines on here and now people just like Bethlehem long ago.

It can never be extinguished,
because, Christ, you are tonight's candle,
and we promise –
to lift our wicks to tomorrow's flame. Amen.

RESPONSIVE CALL TO WORSHIP

One: If you are like Joseph, and you are seeking truth,

All: there is room here for you.

One: If you are like Mary, and you are seeking rest,

All: there is a seat here for you.

All: these candles are here for you.

One: If you are like the angels, and you cannot help but sing,

All: there is a melody here for you.

One: Come in. You are in God's house. Love was born tonight, and there is love here for you.

All: Let us worship the God of love.

“Christmas Flute Medley”

UNISON PRAYER

We come before you this late afternoon in awe, O God, freshly aware of your glory and your love embodied in the midst of this world. Here amid the dirt and straw, amid noise of cattle and labor of birth, we perceive your work. We dare to believe that it is you, God, coming to be among us as Jesus, and so with songs of joy we praise you. Glory be to you, O God, now and forevermore.

In thanksgiving we pray, as Jesus taught us, saying together . . .

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

A CANDLELIGHT LITURGY

One: This, then, is how Love is born: like a seed planted in the darkest of soils that rises to meet the sun’s warming rays, so love emerges from the deepest places. Despite our willing it, and without the force of hand, may love rise graciously to life.

Many: This, then, is how Love is born: as the morning slowly dawns – first a sliver, then a burning horizon – causing the night to fade away, so love transforms our sorrow and fear. Into our need, moving against resistance, may love change things in our lives and in the world.

One: This, then, is how Love is born: as winter’s gentle hibernation gives way to the bursting of spring and the delights of summer, so love is woven through every season. Amidst our doubts and disappointments, when the sands seem to shift under our feet, may love be steadfast and
